All filings are public record in accordance with 215 ILCS 5/404 except where another provision of the Insurance Code says otherwise. The only code section that allows for a filing to be a trade secret or confidential is 215 ILCS 157/40 Use of Credit Information in Personal Insurance Act.

The Department's checklists include summaries that do not provide detailed information about all laws, regulations and bulletins. Therefore, the insurers should review the actual laws, regulations and bulletins to ensure forms are fully compliant before filing with the Department.

A form filing fee is required pursuant to 215 ILCS 5/408 (1)(jj).

DOMESTIC ABUSE  REFERENCE  DESCRIPTION OF REVIEW STANDARDS  REQUIREMENTS  Rating, claims handling, and underwriting decisions based solely on domestic violence.  Solely on domestic violence.  Intentional acts exclusion – exception for innocent co-insured.  The same hazard and expense element because of the race, color, religion, or national origin of such insurance risks or applicants.  Outlines the procedures the Director follows when he has reason to believe that a company is engaging in unfair methods of competition or unfair or deceptive acts or practices.  DESCRIPTION OF REVIEW STANDARDS REQUIREMENTS  No insurer that issues a property and casualty policy may use the fact that an applicant or insured incurred bodily injury as a result of a battery committed against him/her by a spouse or person in the same household as a sole reason for a rating, underwriting, or claims handling decision.  Intentional acts exclusion –  exception for innocent co-insured who did not cooperate in or contribute to the creation of the loss if the loss arose out of a pattern of criminal domestic violence and the perpetrator of the loss is criminally prosecuted for                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          | practices defined.              |                  | permits any unfair discrimination between                |

| DOMESTIC ABUSE Rating, claims handling, and underwriting decisions based solely on domestic violence.  Intentional acts exclusion — exception for innocent coinsured.  Reference Description of Review Standards ReQUIREMENTS  No insurer that issues a property and casualty policy may use the fact that an applicant or insured incurred bodily injury as a result of a battery committed against him/her by a spouse or person in the same household as a sole reason for a rating, underwriting, or claims handling decision.  Intentional acts exclusion — exception for innocent coinsured.  Intentional acts, the insurers may not deny payment to an innocent co-insured who did not cooperate in or contribute to the creation of the loss if the loss arose out of a pattern of criminal domestic violence and the perpetrator of the loss is criminally prosecuted for                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             | of competition or unfair or     |                  | has reason to believe that a company is engaging in      |

| Intentional acts exclusion – exception for innocent co- insured.  If a policy excludes property damage coverage for intentional acts, the insurers may not deny payment to an innocent co-insured who did not cooperate in or contribute to the creation of the loss if the loss arose out of a pattern of criminal domestic violence and the perpetrator of the loss is criminally prosecuted for                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |                                 |                  | household as a sole reason for a rating, underwriting,   |
